

The Yenching Global Symposium 2021

Hello! I am excited to contact you on behalf of the Yenching Global Symposium (YGS), the annual flagship event of the Yenching Academy of Peking University. Our team would be honored if you would extend our invitation to your university's recent graduates and alumni to apply as delegates for the Symposium!

The theme of this year's Symposium is "Shared Renewal: Recoupling East with West". As such, delegates will reflect upon the consequences of the pandemic; discuss solutions that build resilient and sustainable societies; and chart the path for a global recovery – all with an interdisciplinary and international lens.

This year's Symposium dates are April 16th – 18th, 2021. Given the continued risk of COVID-19, delegates will participate online.

We would be delighted for your graduates and students to apply! Among other requirements, applicants must have completed a bachelor's degree or equivalent. More information on eligibility is attached and can also be accessed on our website. Applications will close on January 31st, 2021 (23:59, GMT+8).

Please see an official poster attached, and please do not hesitate to reach out to me at hello@yenchingsymposium.org should you have any questions.

Thank you, and we wish you all the best for this new year!
